Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a another example
of how media outlets
are corrupting our
political system.

This documentary is
not news, it is
blatent lobbying for
one political party.

If you allow this to happen, you should be ashamed. The
airwaves are for the people, but you are
letting them shill
for the powerfull.

Thank you.
